

flew past
to make up sitting in splash down take off to throw in warming up walk-out come down went off went in a fly-past his/her make-up a sit-in a perfect splash-down a smooth take-off a throw-in a quick warm-up a walk-out

down come the prices off went the electric supply in went the sun

9. ONE WORD SUBSTITUTION

One who looks at the bright side of things — optimist
One who looks at the dark side of things — pessimist
One who does not believe in God — atheist
One who believes in God — theist
One who knows everything — omniscient

6. One who is present everywhere	— omnipresent	The Co
7. One who is all powerful	— omnipotent	47.
8. One who cannot read and write	— illiterate	48.
9. One who acts against religion	— heretic	49.
10. One who offers one's services	— volunteer	50.
11. One who is unable to pay off one's debt	— bankrupt	51.
12. One who loves mankind	— philanthropist	52.
13. Love for mankind	— philanthropy	53.
14. One who hates mankind	— misanthrope	54.
15. One who wants to destroy the government	— anarchist	55.
16. One who eats human flesh	— cannibal	56.
17. One who lives on flesh	— carnivorous	57.
18. One who lives at the same time	— contemporary	58.
19. One who is more than a hundred years old	— centenerian	59.
20. One who is eighty years old	— octogenarian	60.
21. One for whom the world is a home	— cosmopolitan	61.
22. One who is indifferent to pain and pleasure	— stoic	62.
23. One who champions the cause of women	— feminist	63.
24. One who is given to pleasures of the flesh	— hedonist	64.
25. One that lives off others	— parasite	65.
26. One who is sympathetic to mankind	— humanitarian	66.
27. One who walks on foot	— pedestrian	67.
28. One who studies things of the past	— antiquarian	68.
29. One who is gifted with several talents	— versatile	69.
30. One who does not drink wine	— teetotaler
31. One who is new to a profession	— novice
32. One who is a habitual drunkard	— sot; toper
33. One who settles in another country	— immigrant	74.
34. One who knows many languages	— polyglot	75.
35. One who carves in stone	— sculptor	76.
36. One who cuts precious stones	— lapidist (lapidary)	77.
37. One who deals in cattle	— drover	78.
38. One who cures eye diseases	— oculist	79.
39. One who sells sweets and pastries	— confectioner	80.
40. One who collects postage stamps	— philatelist	81.
41. One who mends shoes	— cobbler	82.
42. One who loads and unloads ships	— stevedore	83.
43. One who compiles a dictionary	— lexicographer	84.
44. One who walks in one's sleep	— somnambulist	85.
45. One who talks in one's sleep	— somniloquist	86.
46. One who has an irresistible tendency to steal	— kleptomaniac	87.

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 47. One who breaks images, church ornaments or dogma | — iconoclast |
| 48. One who retires from society to live a solitary life | — recluse |
| 49. One who has special skill in judging art, music, etc. | — connoisseur |
| 50. One who is devoted to the pleasures of eating and drinking | — epicure |
| 51. One who is given to the sensual pleasures of the body | — voluptuary |
| 52. One who pretends to be what he is not | — hypocrite |
| 53. One who imitates the voice and gestures of another | — mimic |
| 54. A professional rider in horse races | — jockey |
| 55. A place with gambling tables | — casino |
| 56. A number of sheep | — flock |
| 57. A number of sailors working on a ship | — crew |
| 58. A collection of flags | — bunting |
| 59. A number of battleships | — fleet |
| 60. A cluster of houses in a village | — hamlet |
| 61. A number of stars grouped together | — constellation |
| 62. The house of an Eskimo | — igloo |
| 63. The house of an Arab | — dowar |
| 64. A factory for manufacturing beer | — brewery |
| 65. A place for the collection of medicinal and aromatic plants | — herbarium |
| 66. A building for lodging of soldiers | — barrack |
| 67. A place where money is coined | — mint |
| 68. A place where orphans are housed | — orphanage |
| 69. An institution for reforming young offenders | — reformatory |
| 70. A place for improving one's health | — resort |
| 71. A case in which a sword is kept | — sheath |
| 72. A substance that destroys germs | — antiseptic |
| 73. A medicine which produces insensitivity | — anaesthetic |
| 74. A medicine to counteract poison | — antidote |
| 75. An instrument for listening to the activities of the heart and lungs | — stethoscope |
| 76. Free from infection | — immune |
| 77. A cure for all diseases | — panacea |
| 78. A place where dead bodies are kept | — mortuary |
| 79. A place where dead bodies are interred | — cemetery |
| 80. A place where dead bodies are kept for identification | — morgue |
| 81. An examination of a dead body | — postmortem |
| 82. Occurring after death | — posthumous |
| 83. An inscription on a tomb | — epitaph |
| 84. The dead body of an animal | — carcass |
| 85. The science of colours | — chromatics |
| 86. The science of the structure of the human body | — anatomy |
| 87. The art of effective speaking | — elocution |

- | | | |
|---|----------------|-----|
| 88. The study of mankind | — anthropology | The |
| 89. The study of the human mind | — psychology | 125 |
| 90. The study of physical life | — biology | 130 |
| 91. The study of plants | — botany | 130 |
| 92. The study of animals | — zoology | 130 |
| 93. The study of rocks and soils | — geology | 130 |
| 94. The study of birds | — ornithology | 130 |
| 95. The study of mountains | — orology | 130 |
| 96. The study of languages | — philology | 130 |
| 97. The study of stars | — astronomy | 130 |
| 98. The study of the origin and history of words | — etymology | 130 |
| 99. The study of ancient writing | — paleography | 140 |
| 100. The art of beautiful handwriting | — calligraphy | 140 |
| 101. The art of preserving skin | — taxidermy | 140 |
| 102. Government by the nobility | — aristocracy | 140 |
| 103. Government by a small group of people for their own interest | — oligarchy | 140 |
| 104. Government by departments of state | — bureaucracy | 140 |
| 105. Government of, for and by the people | — democracy | 140 |
| 106. The right of self-government | — autonomy | 140 |
| 107. Government by a rich and powerful class | — plutocracy | 140 |
| 108. The period between two reigns | — interregnum | 140 |
| 109. A council of clergymen | — synod | 150 |
| 110. The ceremony at which a man becomes a priest | — ordination | 150 |
| 111. Violating sacred things | — sacrilege | 150 |
| 112. One intolantly devoted to a particular creed | — bigot | 150 |
| 113. A man who has more than one wife at a time | — polygamist | 150 |
| 114. A woman who has more than one husband at a time | — polyandrist | 150 |
| 115. A hater of women | — misogynist | 150 |
| 116. One who is vowed to live an unmarried life | — celibate | 150 |
| 117. A man whose wife is dead | — widower | 150 |
| 118. A woman whose husband is dead | — widow | 150 |
| 119. Engaged to be married | — betrothed | 160 |
| 120. An instrument for recording the revolutions of the earth | — gyroscope | 160 |
| 121. An instrument for measuring electric current | — ammeter | 160 |
| 122. Smuggled goods | — contraband | 160 |
| 123. The act of spying | — espionage | 160 |
| 124. A knife fixed on the end of a rifle | — bayonet | 160 |
| 125. Soldiers on horses | — cavalry | 160 |
| 126. Soldiers on foot | — infantry | 160 |
| 127. A book of accounts showing debits and credits | — ledger | 160 |
| 128. A book containing information on all the branches of knowledge | — encyclopedia | 160 |

129. A record of one's life written by oneself.
130. A record of one's life written by somebody else
131. A speech by the dramatist at the beginning of a play
132. A speech of the dramatist at the end of the play
133. A poem of mourning
134. A hollow space in a wall for a statue
135. Unable to pay off one's debt
136. Language that has been very much used
137. Correct spelling
138. A place where ancient objects are kept
139. A very private room
140. A room where holy relics are kept
141. A place where mad men are kept
142. A war over a religious cause
143. A lover of books
144. Animals that live in water
145. A written declaration made on oath
146. A bunch of flowers
147. A child born out of wedlock or unlawful marriage
148. A game or battle where no party wins
149. A person's first speech
150. Killing a man
151. Killing one's king
152. Killing one's mother
153. Killing one's father
154. Killing one's brother
155. Killing oneself
156. Animals that suckle their young
157. A speech made without preparation
158. A decision on which all agree
159. A writer who steals ideas from another
160. One that lives off others
161. A medicine that loosens the bowels
162. A speech made to oneself
163. The place where clothes are kept
164. A person's last act to utterance
165. Asking everyone for an opinion
166. Separation from other people to avoid infection
167. An imaginary ideal place or condition
168. A thing kept in memory of an event
169. That which can be heard
- autobiography
- biography
- prologue
- epilogue
- elegy
- niche
- insolvent
- hackneyed
- Orthography
- museum
- sanctum
- Sanctum
sanctorum
- lunatic asylum
- crusade
- bibliophile
- aquatic
- affidavit
- bouquet
- bastard
- draw
- maiden speech
- homicide
- regicide
- matricide
- patricide
- fraticide
- suicide
- mammals
- ex tempore
- unanimous
- plagiarist
- parasite
- laxative
- soliloquy
- wardrobe
- swan song
- referendum
- quarantine
- utopia
- souvenir
- audible

170. That which cannot be heard
 171. That which can be read
 172. That which cannot be read
 173. Liable to catch fire easily
 174. That which can be eaten
 175. That which can be carried
 176. Incapable of being corrected
 177. Commonplace remarks
 178. Belief of God in Nature
 179. The green colouring matter in the leaves of plants
 180. The birds and animals of a certain region
 181. The plants and vegetation of a region
 182. Incapable of being burnt
 183. An optical instrument for seeing distant things
 184. A disease that ends in death
 185. A person suffering from neurosis : unreasonable fears and ideas about the outside world, troubled relations with other people
 186. A book or paper written by hand
 187. Government which honours all religions
 188. A word or article no longer in use: out of date
 189. An instrument for detecting earthquakes
 190. An instrument for measuring gaseous pressure
 191. Property left to someone by a will
 192. Promise given by a prisoner not to escape
 193. An exaggerated statement
 194. A nation that threatens to go to war
 195. A person who lives in another country illegally
 196. Too much official formality
 197. One extremely fond of one's wife
 198. A list of things to be discussed at a meeting
 199. Unduly attached to one's own opinions
 200. Very exact or scrupulous in the observance of forms, of etiquette, ceremony or behaviour
 201. One who is completely self-satisfied
 202. Simple and easily deceived
 203. One who has delusions of one's grandeur
 204. The most exclusive part of a group, town or place
 205. One who flaunts newly acquired wealth
 206. The intelligent and educated group or class of a society or country
 207. Weariness of, and sadness for, life and world
 208. Boredom and frustration in life
- inaudible
 — legible
 — illegible
 — inflammable
 — edible
 — portable
 — incorrigible
 — platitudes
 — pantheism
 — chlorophyl
 — fauna
 — flora
 — incombustible
 — telescope
 — fatal
 — neurotic
 — manuscript
 — secular
 — obsolete
 — seismograph
 — manometer
 — legacy
 — parole
 — hyperbole
 — belligerent
 — alien
 — red tapism
 — uxorious
 — agenda
 — opinionated
 — punctilious
 — complacent
 — gullible
 — megalomaniac
 — elite
 — parvenu, upstart
 — intelligentsia
 — weltanschmerz
 — ennui

The Cor

09. S

10. O

11. O

12. O

13. O

14. T

15. T

16. T

17. T

18. C

19. C

20. A

21. A

22. A

23. A

24. A

25. A

26. A

27. U

28. A

29. A

30. U

31. A

32. A

33. T

to

34. A

n

35. C

36. A

o

37. S

38. A

h

39. T

le

40. A

11. A

12. M

13. A

209. Shy, timid, unwilling to face a situation
210. One who looks at everything from a personal point of view
211. One who is chivalrous, idealistic and impractical
212. One who is grave and gloomy
213. One who derives pleasure from inflicting pain or hurt on others
214. The act of enjoying or having an experience indirectly
215. The tendency to postpone things for the future
216. To relax in the countryside far away from frantic city life
217. To spend life without purpose and initiative
218. One who is interested in the welfare of other people 219. One who believes in keeping things as they are 220. A girl who flirts egregiously
221. A woman who lures men in order to destroy them
222. A tall, strong, masculine kind of woman
223. A loud-mouthed, turbulent kind of woman
224. A traitor who can sell out even his friend
225. A person whose manner and taste are bad
226. A person who flaunts learning all the time
227. Understanding without the interference of feelings
228. An embarrassing mistake
229. A medley or heterogeneous mixture of great variety
230. Underworld slang; specialised language; jargon
231. A language restricted to a region
232. A language of a special group
233. The ascribing of human motivation, characteristics or behaviour to inanimate objects, animals or natural phenomena
234. A payment not legally binding but for which some moral obligation is felt
235. One who gives directions from behind the scene on a stage
236. A ritualistic washing or cleansing of the body, especially during or before a religious ceremony
237. Something perfectly neat and tidy
238. A legal defence by which an accused person tries to show that he was somewhere else when the crime was committed
239. The money that a court asks a man to pay to his divorced or legally separated wife
240. A treatise on one subject
241. A speech uttered by one person
242. Mental derangement confined to a single idea
243. An airplane with one pair of wings
- diffident
- egocentric
- quixotic
- saturnine
- sadistic
- vicariously
- procrastination
- rustic
- vegetate
- altruist
- conservative
- coquette
- Circe
- amazon
- virago
- judas
- vulgarian
- pedant
- empathy
- a faux pas
- potpourri
- argot
- dialect
- patois
- anthropomorphism
- ex gratia
- prompter
- ablution
- immaculate
- alibi
- alimony
- monograph
- monologue
- monomania
- monoplane

244. Exclusive possession or control of any one thing
245. The group, especially in the arts, regarded as being the most experimental 246. Words or action showing deliberate contempt for sacred things
247. An official bulletin
248. A solemn agreement entered between two or more parties
249. A passage with only one end
250. A showy person
251. The art of painting on a plaster surface
252. A record or table showing the descent of a person or a family
253. A connoisseur of food and drink
254. That which foretells the coming of something
255. A person who teaches religion and claims that his teaching comes to him directly from God
256. A persistent anxiety about one's health, usually involving imagined symptoms of illness
257. An odd, a typical or eccentric trait
258. Not planned ahead of time
259. To compensate a person etc., for loss or damage
260. Originating or occurring naturally in the place or country where found
261. A time between periods or events
262. A plan for or the route to be followed on a journey
263. A group of persons who band together for some secret purpose, especially for political intrigue
264. A short journey for pleasure
265. A swiftly changing scene or pattern
266. A lightly constructed open booth generally used as a newsstand
267. That which cannot be pacified
268. A written attack using humour to provoke ridicule or contempt
269. A false written statement to damage a person's reputation
270. A phrase or sentence that is comical or nonsensical because the speaker used a wrong word that sounded something like a right word
271. An instruction from an electorate to its representative
272. A full-size model of a complete or partial human figure
273. Personal reminiscences in a narrative form
274. The manner of operating or proceeding
275. A long wandering journey
276. An authoritative decree or law of the government
277. A person having authority to inquire into grievances of citizens against public authorities

- monopoly
- avant-garde
- blasphemy
- communique
- covenant
- cul-de-sac
- flamboyant
- fresco
- genealogy
- gourmet
- harbinger
- prophet
- hypochondria
- idiosyncrasy
- impromptu
- indemnify
- indigenous
- interim
- itinerary
- junta
- jaunt
- kaleidoscope
- kiosk
- implacable
- lampoon
- libel
- malapropism
- mandate
- mannequin
- memoir
- modus operandi
- odyssey
- ordinance
- ombudsman